CONSENT TO ELECTRONIC RECORDS AND COMMUNICATION

Please read the following important information carefully and retain a copy for future reference. As part of your relationship with us, you have the right to receive certain information “in writing” – which means you are entitled to receive such information on paper. The federal ESIGN Act and certain state laws allow us to provide this information to you electronically, instead, with your prior consent. To better serve you, we need your consent to use Electronic Records (defined below) in our relationship with you generally. This document informs you of your rights when receiving Electronic Records from us in connection with any The Home Depot Loan Services bank loan for which you apply (“Account”). You must read and consent to the terms outlined below.

Definitions. For purposes of this Consent to Electronic Records and Communication, the following terms have the following meaning:

“We,” “us,” and “our” refer to your lender and its current and future affiliates, agents, and assigns and any other person or entity who provides services related to your Account, including The Home Depot Loan Services.

“You” and “your” means the person giving this consent, and also each additional applicant, accountholder, authorized user, and account contact on any The Home Depot Loan Services bank loan you apply for.

“Electronic Records” are any legally-required disclosures, agreements, Account information, notices, statements, and other information to you electronically. Electronic Records may include, but are not limited to, applicable disclosures pursuant to the Equal Credit Opportunity Act and Regulation B; ESIGN Act Disclosure and Consent; the Truth in Lending Act and Regulation Z; the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act and Regulation P; and any other federal, state or local law, or regulation applicable to your application or Account.

Your Consent to Use Electronic Records and Signatures. By agreeing to this Consent to Electronic Records and Communication, you acknowledge receipt of this document, consent to the use of Electronic Records and electronic signatures in connection with your account (collectively, “Your Consent”). Your Consent is effective until you withdraw Your Consent. We may always, in our sole discretion, provide you with a document in writing, even when you have chosen to receive it electronically.

Requesting Paper Copies. You may request paper copies of Electronic Records at no cost by writing to us at P.O. Box 29429, Attn: Mail/Print, Atlanta, GA 30359 or emailing us at service@greenskycredit.com.

Doing Business Electronically. Before you decide to do business electronically with us, you should consider whether you have the required hardware and software capabilities described below.

Hardware and Software Requirements. To access and retain Electronic Records electronically, you will need to use the computer software and hardware identified below. “Current Version” means a version of the software or hardware that is currently being supported by its publisher. You will need the following:

- Internet access,
- Current Version (defined below) of a PDF reader (such as Adobe® Acrobat),
- Current Version of an Internet browser (such as Internet Explorer, Firefox, Chrome, Safari),
- A means to retain documents by printing or storing electronically,
